Top 10 Home Club Frequently Asked Questions!

1. How do I make a service request?

It's easy! Our service department is available 24/7. You can call 1-855-613-4555 or place your request online.

2. When does the policy start? Is there a waiting period?

With a valid home inspection report, we can begin coverage immediately, waiving the standard 30-day waiting period and using your closing date as the beginning of the policy.

3. Do you cover pre-existing conditions? What if my home inspection report shows issues but we have them resolved?

Typically, any issues found in the home inspection report should be addressed by the seller prior to closing. Known pre-existing conditions that show up on your home inspection report will not be covered by AFC or any company in the home warranty industry.

When you have repairs done prior to closing, hold on to any proof-of-repair invoices. These invoices help AFC confirm that your home had no pre-existing issues when your membership started.

4. What's the difference between a preventative maintenance report and a home inspection?

A home inspector notes whether or not the unit functions at all, but doesn't conduct any in-depth tests. Service Champions, a Northern California HVAC company, explains:

"Home buyers assume that the home inspector has tested their heating and air conditioning equipment. But the home inspector may simply turn on your furnace and air conditioner to make sure they work.... HVAC systems, like cars, can work even if there are major problems."

By contrast, preventative maintenance is performed by a licensed HVAC contractor and is geared towards increasing the lifespan and performance of your unit. During maintenance, technicians not only inspect the unit but also clean filters and coils and make any adjustments necessary. Learn more about preventative maintenance and its benefits here.

5. Can I choose which technician I use?

Of course! While we have a great nationwide network of technicians, you also have the option to choose your own as long as they are licensed, bonded, and insured.

6. Will my rate go up when I renew the membership?

Nope. We'll offer you the same rate and service fee that you had when you signed up, plus you will be eligible for discounted three-year rates available only to renewing customers

7. What is a work guarantee? Why does it matter?

A work guarantee refers to a length of time after a repair during which the homeowner will not have to pay if the same issue occurs again. Most home warranty companies will guarantee a repair for 30 to 60 days, but AFC Home Club offers the longest work guarantee in the industry: we'll guarantee the cost of parts and labor on repairs for the life of the plan.

8. I have homeowner's insurance, why do I need a home protection plan?

Homeowner's insurance generally covers large structural issues and physical damage due to weather, fire, or theft. AFC's coverage is designed to pick up where homeowner's insurance leaves off, covering the daily operation of the systems and appliances in your home.

9. Is everything in my home covered?

Unfortunately, we cannot cover everything in your home; however, AFC Home Club has some of the most comprehensive coverage in the industry. We cover items that are in good working condition and are properly maintained at the time of enrollment.

See the sample Terms and Conditions in this pamphlet for a specific list of covered items, limitations, maintenance requirements, and any exclusions.

10. Can I add a protection plan to the house I'm buying after closing?

You can start protecting your home with a plan at any time, but in order to take advantage of special real estate pricing and terms, you must set up the plan within 15 days of closing.
